

The Water and the Earth

Among all these ghosts
I look for you
Among all these strangers
I look for your eyes

As the world keeps spinning
I stay firm at the center
Clinging to that feeling
You will give on your return

As the sea starts raging
I see myself with you
I chase the highest tide
Go against the whale

Thousands of miles away
You're always by my side
You dance through the orchard
Free as coloured blossoms

The dreams inside my head
Drive me to your heart
For I am the water
And you are my earth
